Saturday Golf

It was another family affair for the Spitty family as father Andrew (6) and talented daughter Olive (25), won their respective events last Saturday. Andrew showed the skill that gave him four club championships by carding a wonder round of one over par 72 nett 66, to win the Monthly Medal, while Olive scored 95 for a nett 70 ahead of Nola Robinson (41) nett 71 and Michelle Dillon (10) nett 72.

In the Men's event, Andrew Spitty started brilliantly with a birdie on the first hole, but dropped it on the third with a bogey, picked it up again on the fifth with a birdie before handing it back with a bogey on the seventh, to turn in even par. A bogey on the sixteenth hole was his only blemish on the back nine. Peter Hall (13) was second after carding a terrific nine over par round 80, for a nett 67. The in-form Graham Wyte (14) was third, recording an eleven over par round 82, nett 68.

Dave Conlan, Dave Gray, Joe Tartaglia, Nola Robinson and Chris Waterson completed the ball pool. Don Ross won the NAGA Award.

His sensational 47 stableford points came via an even par front nine and a three over par back nine; ten strokes better than his handicap. Bob McKnight (20) was an unlucky second place finisher, carding a terrific 45 points, a score that would have won several times throughout the year. Lakeside Golf member, Fred O'Bryan (28) was third with a credible 41 points. Joe Tartaglia completed the ball pool with 38 points.
