Thursday Golf

Andrew Spitty (4) continues to impress, riding his current purple patch with a sensational round on Thursday January 10, of two under par 69 for 42 stableford points. While the round was without doubt outstanding, a bogey on the final hole and failure to birdie three of the four par fives would have been disappointing by his standards. Spitty jointly holds the course record of 67 and on his current form that mark looks seriously under threat.

Current Club Champion, Chris Waterson (8) is also in tremendous form, recording another top round after failing to score on the par 3 ninth hole. A double bogey on the final hole was the only other mis-step in a fighting round of 41 points.

In third place, was this Month's Medal winner, Doug Ellwood (24) who also recorded a fine round of 41 points.

Terry Turvey, John Murphy and Kevin Sambrooks completed the ball pool.

Nearest to the pins: Gary Hayes (3rd), Ron Schultze (5th), Olive Spitty (9th), Tony Laughlin (13th), Doug Ellwood (16th). NAGA: Denis Bacon

Saturday Golf

Fresh off his Ian Westland title win, Brady Gillingham (14) looks to be enjoying his golf again, scoring a brilliant round to win the Greenwood Mugge event on Saturday with 43 points. In a round that included two birdies, Gillingham relished the hot conditions, playing well above his handicap.

Jarrad Walker (11) also favoured the conditions, producing the best round of the day of six over par 77 and 42 points. In third place was Shane Dibsdale (13) who looks to be coming back into form with a better than handicap score of 40 points.

Deaniee Henderson (34) is again the Ladies winner with 35 points over Michelle Dillon (10) who recorded 34 points.

James Meehan, Blake Shay, John Murphy and Allan Free completed the ball pool.
