Saturday Golf

A big field last Saturday produced some terrific scores with Lindsay Hogg winning the Men's stableford competition with 42 points, while Michelle Dillon continues on her winning way, taking out another Ladies event, scoring 36 points.

Col Wilkie proved he is back in form, finishing just behind the winner in the Men's event with 41 points, one point ahead of another player in-form, Brendan Shields.

Chris Manners, Geoff Williams, Casey Gillen, Scott Harry and Chris Waterson completed the ball. The best round of the day was recorded by Chris Manners with a five over par 76, while young golfing prospect Olive Spitty produced her best round with a score of 89. Well done Olive.

Nearest to the pins: Casey Gillen (3rd), N/C (5th), Don Ross (9th), Super Pin - Ken Williams (13th), Gary Thorne (16th).

Note: This Saturday is a Stableford Event.

Thursday Golf

Players failed to take advantage of the beautiful weather and glorious golf course on Thursday March 21, with the best stableford score coming from Graham Wyte (13) who scored 37 points. No excuses too for A Grade player Gary Thorne (5) who only managed to play to his handicap and score 36 points for second place. Brendan Shields (13) was third, also recording 36 points. Terry Turvey (12) completed the ball pool with 35 points.

The best round of the day was recorded by Gary Thorne with a five over par 76.

Nearest to the pins: Brendan Shields (3rd), N/C (5th), Gary Thorne (9th), Ron Schultze (13th), N/C (16th). The Pen was awarded to Brian Murphy.

Please Note: Thursday golf is open to all golfers. Registration from 12noon. Tee-off 12.45pm.

Ladies Report

Lost bags and broken-down buggies were just some of the drama at the ladies' competition on Wednesday before June Cullen settled down to business, winning with -1. Lorraine Boland was second and Lorraine Bray third, with Jean Youl completing the ball pool. Carol Dear was NTP for the second shot on the 16th, while Jean Youl won the coffee voucher from Chino's. Joyce Boyd took home the pen this week. DSR 70. Well done to everyone for scoring a 100% pass rate using our new cards.

We say goodbye to the wonderful girls from Lakeside Golf Club who now return to their club for the upcoming season. Thank you for your wonderful support and friendship over the summer months.

Next week is Monthly Medal. Assemble 9.00 am for 9.30 am hit off.

Twilight Golf

The last night of Twilight Golf for the year saw Logan Kieghran win the Golfer's section with net 32.5. Deaniee Henderson was second scoring net 33.5, while Jarrad Walker returned net 34. Chris Manners completed the ball pool on net 34.5.

In the non-Golfers section, Anthony Shaw won with net 37, ahead of H. Pannu who finished with net 37.5 and Brendan Kieghran with net 39.

Nearest the Pin: Deaniee Henderson 9th. Superpin: N/C. Longest Drive: Jarrad Walker. Nearest the Line: John Murray. Nearest the Tyre: Anthony Shaw.

Kerang Golf Club wishes to thank all the players, members and visitors for their support during the Twilight series and we look forward to seeing you all again next year.
