Saturday Golf

Another big field last Saturday produced some terrific scores with Ron Schultze (25) managing a big back nine to overrun the in-form Peter Hall (12) and win the Greenwood Mugge. Hall's early front nine holes were as solid as ever and while he lost some ground at holes seven and eight, it was bogies over four of the last five holes that proved the difference. Schultze too had some bogie issues mid-round, but kept his cool to win with 41 points, while Hall finished with 38 points.

In the Ladies event, Lalbert Golf Club member, Robyn Meehan (29) put last week's poor performance behind her to win the Silver Goblet with 36 points. It was a great response and excellent effort after suffering two misses in her round. Jan Harry (10) was second, producing 35 points, with Michelle Dillon (10) finishing third on 34 points.

David Stubbs, Tony Hall, Lindsay Hogg, Doug Meehan, Chris Waterson and Doug Ellwood completed the ball pool. The NAGA went to Trevor Grant. The best round of the day was recorded by Gary Thorne and Peter Hall with a nine over par 80.

Nearest to the pins: Geoff Williams (3rd), Paul Goodson (5th), Gary Thorne (9th), Super Pin - Graham Wyte (13th), Graham Wyte (16th).

Note: This Saturday is a Stableford Event.

Thursday Golf

Gary Thorne (5) put together a fine round of 39 points to win the stableford competition on Thursday March 7. An even par round on the front nine was followed by a two over par on the back nine. Joel Gray (24) continues to show his talent, returning 38 points for second place ahead of Terry Turvey (12) who scored 37 points.

Geoff Williams (17) completed the ball pool. The best round of the day was recorded by Gary Thorne with a two over par 73.

Nearest to the pins: Gary Thorne (3rd), Terry Turvey (5th), Fred O'Bryan (9th), Chris Waterson (13th), Terry Turvey (16th). The Pen was awarded to Brian Gibson.
