First Round Men's Club Championships

Chris Waterson (8) was the only player to break 80 as strong windy conditions and cored greens made scoring tough on the first round of the Men's Club Championships last Saturday. His round of 79 puts him one ahead of Phil Lloyd (10) and two ahead of Simon Kelly (5) who has just recently resumed playing on a regular basis. Defending Club Champion, Don Ross (9) is five away on 84, while last year's runner-up Gary Thorne (6) is three off the pace on 82.

While scores were well below expectation, Waterson's five over par 9 on the par 4 fourth hole made the other scores look respectable. Instead of having a comfortable lead going into the second round, the hic-up cost him dearly, finishing one stroke ahead of second place, with three other players close behind.

In B Grade, Scott Harry (13) and Paul Goodson (15) share the lead with 87. Graham Wyte (14) is second on 88.

Geoff Williams (18) is the clear leader in C Grade, finishing with 90, while Bob McKnight (18) and Casey Gillen (21) share second place with 95.

The winner of the Men's competition was Maurice Meehan (16) with net 70 and for the Ladies, Michelle Dillon (11) with net 71.

Ball Pool: Phil Lloyd, Chris Waterson, Jarrad Walker, Paul Goodson, Geoff Williams, Terry Turvey, Casey Gillen, Graham Wyte and Scott Harry. NAGA award to Poddy Free.

Nearest to the pins: Scott Harry (3rd), Chris Waterson (5th), Doug Meehan (9th), Paul Goodson- Superpin (13th) and Phil Lloyd (16th).

This Saturday is the second round of the Men's Championship. Shot-Gun start 1pm. Note: Medal of the Medallist will be decided on the final round of the Club Championships.

Thursday Golf

Ron Schultze (25) has put another great score together and looks to be back on track recording a sizzling round on Thursday 18 October. His score of 44 points was an easy win over Don Ross (9) who also carded a top round of 41 points.

Gordon Yard (29) from Murrabit Golf Club was third with 39 points.
